Vista Gold Corp. (AMEX: VGZ) Toronto announced today that Michael B. Richings, former President and CEO from June 1995 to September 2000, and current member of the Board of Directors, has agreed to assume the role of President and CEO of the Company while a permanent replacement is sought for President and CEO Ronald J. (Jock) McGregor, who passed away suddenly and unexpectedly yesterday, in Littleton, Colorado. The appointment of Mr. Richings was made effective today at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

"Mike Richings is the ideal person to step in and manage the Company during the period while we search for a new President and CEO. Mike knows the business strategy of the Company and is well-acquainted with the Company's properties and its employees. The Company has developed a strong foundation, a dedicated shareholder following, a committed Board of Directors and a trusted management structure that will continue with the enthusiasm and commitment Jock exhibited," stated John Clark, board member and Chairman of the Audit and Compensation Committees. "The Board will work closely with Mike and Vista's management team to ensure the continued success of the Company and orderly transition to Mr. McGregor's successor. The plans and strategies that were developed so ably by Mr. McGregor will be continued and expanded. Meanwhile, our condolences go out to Jock's family and friends, and they are in our thoughts during this difficult time for them."
