Vista Gold Corp. Announces Appointment of CFO and Extension of Amayapampa Due Diligence Period

PRNewswire-FirstCall

DENVER

Vista Gold Corp. (Amex: VGZ; TSX) announced today the appointment of Gregory G. Marlier to the position of Chief Financial Officer effective immediately. This follows a search lasting several months for an experienced CFO with a substantial mining industry background. Greg brings over 25 years of experience in corporate finance, accounting and securities regulatory compliance, much of which has been in the mining industry. He has a B.S. degree in Business Administration/Accounting from John Carroll University. Most recently, he was CFO at Pacific Western Technologies, Ltd. in Lakewood, Colorado, and has served in similar positions with Apex Silver Mines, Ltd. of Denver, Colorado, and Cambior USA, Inc., of Englewood, Colorado.

Michael B. Richings, President and CEO, stated, "Vista's former President and CEO Jock McGregor recommended to the board that we hire Greg, and Jock and I both worked with him in the past and found him to be highly talented and capable. I am pleased that he will join us and assist the Company in its continued growth."

On another matter, the Company has granted Luzon Minerals, Ltd. ("Luzon") a two-month extension, to August 1, 2004, to complete its due diligence program on the Company's Amayapampa project in Bolivia. As previously reported, in December 2003 the Company agreed to sell its Amayapampa project to Luzon, which is in the process of updating the feasibility study completed by Vista in 2000 and negotiating a socio-economic agreement with the community surrounding the Amayapampa project. During this two-month extension, Luzon will continue to pay
